NOTE:

TRAIN SECTORS: Are self-guided. Your Stray Guide will take you to the train station, and you'll be met by your in-location guide at the train station at your next destination.
BUS SECTORS: Are guided by a Stray Driver-Guide.
The departure time listed is the time that the bus/train actually departs so you need to be waiting outside your confirmed pickup/departure point 15 minutes prior.
*Timetable is subject to change, please checkstraytravel.com.au to confirm you have the latest version and for a list of our pick up times and places.

Timetable Info

RAINBOW BEACH 9am	Places in BOLD & CAPITALS are overnight destinations. The 1st bold place listed is the departure time, the 2nd is the arrival time.
Gold Coast 9.30am	Places in regular type are other stops you can hop on or off. The times are departure times unless otherwise listed.
7am	Coloured areas show Stray's main guided departure days.
12.54pm	Light grey shaded areas show the other days the trains/ferries run where you can travel but there's no Stray guide or access to Stray transfers/special stops.
	Dark grey shaded areas illustrate days with no departures.
FREE	FREE days illustrate days where you have a free day to explore a destination within a set trip/departure.

Train Info

The train departs 5 x per week, you can hop off the train at other points (such as Bundaberg or Miriam Vale between Noosa and Rockhampton), and travel on unguided non-Stray train departures, however you won't have access to Stray's local bus transfers or the Stray guide.
To jump on from Hervey Bay - catch the free rail connection bus to Maryborough West train station (this must be pre-booked via the Stray office).
To go to 1770 you need to prebook and purchase an additional transfer from the Miriam Vale train station.
To go to Noosa from Cooroy train station, there are frequent local buses for approx $5.60.
